(An autonomous college affiliated to Anna University)

Questionnaire to students on requirements for them to become Role ready Engineers

Preamble

MCET is attempting to prepare role ready engineers. It is impossible for college to prepare role ready engineers, without a thorough understanding of requirement from engineers in industries, alumnus, parents and students. However the feedback from the students of MCET is also more important since you are the candidates who are aspiring to become successful and role ready engineers and for whom the institute is taking lot of sincere and innovative efforts. With the inputs from you on the following questions, the institution envisages to co create role ready engineers for industries in the near future. The autonomous status being enjoyed by the college since 2011, works for the benefits of the student, college and the industry in this regard. This questionnaire attempts to capture the expectations on various aspects of an engineering student, as required for the academic at a college.

We thank you for your valuable inputs through this questionnaire.
