(An autonomous college affiliated to Anna University)

Questionnaire to Parents on requirements from Newly Recruited Engineer

Preamble

MCET is attempting to prepare role ready engineers. It is impossible for college to prepare engineers, without a thorough understanding of requirement from parents. With the inputs from parents to the following questions, MCET envisages to co create engineers for industries in the near future. The autonomous status being enjoyed by the college since 2011, works for the benefits of the college and the industry in this regard. This questionnaire attempts to capture the expectations on various aspects of a role ready engineer, as required for the academic process at a college.

We at MCET, thank you for your valuable inputs through this questionnaire.
