

7.1.11: Institution celebrates / organizes national and international commemorative days, events and festivals (within 500 words).

The institution is dedicated to fostering a vibrant and inclusive community by actively participating in the commemoration of local, national, and worldwide holidays, events, and festivals. It recognizes the importance of these occasions in promoting cultural awareness, fostering a sense of unity, and instilling a deeper understanding of one's heritage and national pride among students.

To facilitate the celebration of various festivals and events, the institution hosts a range of cells and clubs. These cells and clubs come together to organize and commemorate significant occasions, such as Independence Day, Republic Day, International Women's Day, International Yoga Day, Teacher's Day, National Education day, Cultural day, National Voter's day, National Unity day, World Food safety day, World Consumers Right day.

The institution provides substantial resources, including dedicated workforce, financial support, facilities, and necessary supplies, to ensure the successful execution of these events. On Independence Day and Republic Day, impressive drill parades are organized, featuring the participation of National Cadet Corps (NCC) students. These parades serve as a display of discipline, patriotism, and unity among the student community, fostering a strong sense of national pride.

Even in challenging times, such as during a pandemic, the institution remains committed to observing national holidays and important events. Measures are taken to ensure adherence to safety protocols while celebrating occasions like Teacher's Day and National Education Day. The institution recognizes the significance of these events in honouring educators and promoting the value of education in society.

To mark the birth and death anniversaries of eminent national figures, the institution invites renowned speakers to deliver soul-stirring speeches. These speeches serve as a means of paying tribute to the legacy of these leaders, inspiring students, and reinforcing the values they stood for.

In the face of unique circumstances, the institution has adapted its approach to ensure the continuation of traditions. For instance, the third International Yoga Day was celebrated online on June 21, 2017. Students actively participated by practicing yoga at home and submitting videos of their sessions to the institution. These videos were then shared on the official platform, allowing students to connect virtually and collectively celebrate the benefits of yoga.

On the occasion of International Women's Day, the institution takes the opportunity to recognize and honour outstanding women who have excelled in various fields. The institution presents the Yuvasakthi award to the most accomplished woman in society. By acknowledging these exceptional women and sharing their stories, the institution aims to inspire other women, instil confidence, and provide direction to aspiring young women. Overall, the institution's commitment to commemorating festivals, events, and national holidays reflects its dedication to fostering a sense of unity, cultural appreciation, and pride among the student community. Through its diverse range of activities, the institution encourages students to embrace their heritage, engage in meaningful celebrations, and develop a stronger sense of patriotism and social responsibility.
